

Student Allowance Parents' form

This form is to be completed by the two main parents¹ of students who are under 24 years old without dependent children. This includes students who are married or in a de facto or civil union relationship. The student will also need to complete a Student Allowance application.

For a student to get the Student Allowance, their parents' combined income must be less than:

- $133,756.29 if the student lives away from a parental home to study, or
- $124,474.45 if the student lives in a parental home.

If you are the student's only parent don't complete this application. You will need to complete a One Parent application form instead.

If either parent wishes to keep their details confidential they can each complete a separate form and send it to us.

If you need a One Parent application form, or another Parents' form, you can download one from our website studylink.govt.nz

For more information, visit our website studylink.govt.nz

¹ If the student has more than two parents, they must nominate the two parents who are the major contributors to their support. StudyLink does not have to accept the nomination if there is information that suggests the nominated parent(s) are not the major contributors to the student's support. For our definition of parent, go to the 'Information for parents' on page 9.

Before you start – Read this page

Here are some important things you need to know before you complete this form.

Use blue or black ink only

When completing this form you must only use blue or black ink. If this form is completed in any other colour we might get you to complete another one.

Answer all the questions

It is important to answer every question in this form. If a question doesn't apply to you, use 'N/A' or 'nil'. Don't leave the space blank, unless indicated on the form, as this could delay the process and the student may not get paid on time.

You may need to provide documents

You may need to provide certain documents with this form – these are listed on page 8.

All documents sent to StudyLink must be a verified copy. A verified copy is a copy of the original document which has been signed and dated by someone like a Solicitor/Lawyer, Notary Public, Court Registrar, an approved person at an education provider, school principal, StudyLink or Work and Income staff member or Justice of the Peace (listed in the Yellow Pages) who can confirm that the copy is the same as the original. They must print their name and title on each page and write that it is a true copy and sign it.

The best way to send your documents to us is online using connect.co.nz. Please remember to include the student's name and client number with any documents that you send to us. For more information visit connect.co.nz

In most cases you won't have to provide any document that StudyLink has already seen.

 Remember to sign and date this application on page 8 and make sure anyone else who needs to sign it has done so.

How to return this form

The easiest and fastest way to return your completed form to us is online using connect.co.nz. Please remember to include the student's name and client number.

For more ways to contact us, visit our website studylink.govt.nz

Parents' checklist

Make sure the Total income has been included on the Income source table on pages 5 and 6.

First parent Second parent

If your accountant or tax agent has completed the Income source table on your behalf, make sure they have also completed the declaration on page 7.

Documents to provide

Where the Income source table is completed by your accountant or tax agent and they have provided their details and signed the declaration page, evidence is not required.

If you have completed the table yourself we require evidence to support your declarations.

All documents sent to StudyLink must be a verified copy. A verified copy is a copy of the original document which has been signed and dated by someone like a Solicitor/Lawyer, Notary Public, Court Registrar, an approved person at an education provider, school principal, StudyLink or Work and Income staff member or Justice of the Peace (listed in the Yellow Pages) who can confirm that the copy is the same as the original. They must print their name and title on each page and write that it is a true copy and sign it.

The best way to send your documents to us is online using connect.co.nz. Please remember to include the student's name and client number with any documents that you send to us. For more information visit connect.co.nz

You need to provide any information we need before the end of the student's course or their Student Allowance application may be closed.

First parent Second parent

Evidence of any income you receive. For example, recent payslips (you need to provide at least four weeks of income and computer generated payslips must be signed by your employer), a letter or statement from your employer, a detailed statement from your accountant or Inland Revenue (this can be printed from your myIR but must show the web address), details of rental income and expenses, taxable boarder income, or a tax assessment notice of the country or countries you receive income from stating your income before tax, or a letter from your bank(s), social security or pension provider, or any other organisation you get income from. If your income hasn't changed since the last complete financial year you can provide evidence of this income.

Evidence of your nil taxable income – if you don't have any income. For example, a letter or statement from Inland Revenue or your accountant, as well as a statement detailing how you support yourself on nil income. If you receive financial help from someone else, they need to complete a written statement confirming that they have been financially supporting you, and the amount of financial assistance you have received from them - this statement must also state if the assistance received is a gift or a loan that needs to be repaid.

Birth certificates or passports for other full-time students. You won't need to provide these if StudyLink has already seen them.

Parents' declaration

The information I have provided is true and I have not left anything out. I understand I may be asked to provide further evidence to support the income details I have given and that I could be prosecuted if I make a false statement.

Information for parents

Definition of a parent

A parent includes a natural or adoptive parent, step-parent¹, partner² of a parent, some caregivers, and any other person acting in place of a parent³ who is financially responsible for the student.

Caregivers who are not parents

A person (including their spouse or partner) who is, or has been, a caregiver of a student is not considered a parent if they:

- are receiving or have received a Foster Care Allowance, Orphan's Benefit or Unsupported Child's Benefit for the student, or
- are providing or have provided a Transition Support Living Arrangement through Oranga Tamariki for the student.

Income definitions

For more information on Parental income, please refer to 'Parents' income – Student Allowance definition' in the glossary section on the StudyLink website: studylink.govt.nz

Offsetting income losses – MB 3 of Income Tax Act 2007

For Student Allowance parental income purposes, where a loss has occurred, it is generally regarded as nil income: an exception does exist to this rule. Where a parent has multiple business or investment activities of a kind that are normally associated with each other, a loss from one activity may be able to be offset against the profit from the other activity.

Ministry of Social Development payments

This is the gross amount of any income from a main benefit that you receive from Work and Income, New Zealand Superannuation or from a Student Allowance.

Note: A main benefit includes, Jobseeker Support, Sole Parent Support, Supported Living Payment, Emergency Benefit, Youth Payment and Young Parent Payment. Any supplementary assistance you receive (e.g. Accommodation Supplement) is not included as income.

Salary/Wages

This is the total amount of any salary or wages (taxable or non-taxable) you are paid by an employer. This includes paid parental leave and overseas salary and wages. This does not include non-taxable allowances or any wages you draw from a business, partnership or company you operate.

Shareholder salaries

This is the gross salary or remuneration distributed from a company to a shareholder for services performed. This is paid before the final net profit is determined. This is listed as an expense from the company.

Interest

Gross interest earned from any source. This includes any money earned from an interest bearing bank account.

Dividends

Dividends are part of a company's profit that is passed on to its shareholders. These are paid to shareholders according to the proportion of the company they own. Unit trusts are treated as companies for tax purposes and unit trust distributions are treated as dividends.

Accident compensation

Any ongoing gross payments paid to you as a result of an accident/injury. This does not include compensation for a loss other than for a loss of income or any lump sum compensation under the Accident Compensation Act 2001.

Net rental income

This is the net income (gross income less expenses) made from all rental properties that you own. Income from rental properties that are part of a business or trust must be included in any business or trust income declared.

Business net income (Sole Trader)

This is the gross amount of any income that is received as a result of business activity less all expenses.

Partnership net income

Your proportion of net income (gross income less expenses) received by the partnership.

Director fees

All fees distributed from a company to a director for services performed.

Continued ...

¹ A step parent is a person who is married, or in a civil union or de facto relationship with, the parent of the student.

² A partner is a person who is married, or in a civil union or de facto relationship with, the parent of the student.

³ A person acting in place of a parent can include grandparents, other relatives (including whāngai), and some current and former caregivers and guardians of the student.

Income of major shareholders held in a closely held company

A closely held company is a company where at any time there are five or fewer people whose voting interests in the company is more than 50% or, if market value circumstances exist for the company, there are five or fewer people whose market value interest in the company is more than 50%.

If a parent is a major shareholder in a closely held company, the income is the greater of either zero or the amount calculated using the following formula:

(parents' interest + attributed interest) x (income – dividends)

Attributable trustee income

(MB 7 of the Income Tax Act 2007)

All income for the year of a trust that has not been distributed as beneficiary income is income attributed to the settlors of the trust. Generally a settlor is a person who transfers value in cash or kind to the trust for the benefit of the beneficiaries. You are also a settlor if you provide financial assistance to a trust (or for the benefit of the trust) with an obligation to pay you back on demand, and you don't ask the trust to pay you back or you defer making the request for repayment.

Trust beneficiary income

All income distributed from a trust to a beneficiary.

Trustee fees

This is any income paid to you from a trust as trustee for services performed.

Personal Drawings

Any payments withdrawn from any entity for personal use in addition to the salary and profit paid to you.

Other payments exceeding $5,000.00 a year

(MB 13 of the Income Tax Act 2007)

Payments received from any other person used for your family's usual living expenses or to replace diminished income can be considered income. These are payments that were used for something you and your family would otherwise have paid for yourselves.

Note: There are exclusions that are outlined under MB 13 (2) of the Income Tax Act 2007.

Income from boarders

The Inland Revenue website outlines what amount of any declared boarding payments are deemed to be taxable. This amount will depend on the costs incurred and payments received. Please see Inland Revenue's website for more information ird.govt.nz.

Tax exempt income

(MB 1(2) of the Income Tax Act 2007)

This includes salary and wages exempt from income under specific international agreements in New Zealand. It includes employees of international organisations such as the United Nations or the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) or under the Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1968.

Pensions and Annuities

(MB 5, 6 and 10 of the Income Tax Act 2007)

This includes overseas pensions (state NZ$). Also, 50% of the amount of income, pensions or annuities from a life insurance policy or private superannuation fund. This may also include certain distributions from retirement saving schemes or private superannuation schemes before the retirement age (65 years old). Please see Inland Revenue's website for more information ird.govt.nz.

Attributable fringe benefits

(MB 8 of the Income Tax Act 2007)

The value of any attributable fringe benefits received and the fringe benefit tax paid by the company is required to be declared by all shareholder-employees if you hold voting interest of 50% or more in a company.

Salary exchanged for private use of an employer-provided motor vehicle

(MB 7B of the Income Tax Act 2007)

From 1 April 2014, if you agreed to a lower salary in exchange for private use of a company motor vehicle, the amount of your salary reduction is treated as part of your income. If the use of the vehicle just comes with the job then do not include the value.

Employer-provided short term charge facilities

(MB 7B of the Income Tax Act 2007)

As of 1 April 2014, if your employer is providing you with a short-term charge facility that allows you to buy, hire, or charge goods or services at a discounted rate this can be treated as income. It would be considered income if the benefits are either more than 5% of your salary and wages, or $1,200.

Portfolio Investment Entity Income (PIE)

(MB 1(5) of the Income Tax Act 2007)

This includes an amount of taxable or non-taxable income attributed by a PIE fund to you, except if the PIE fund is a 'locked-in' superannuation fund or retirement savings scheme (e.g. KiwiSaver).

Income equalisation scheme deposits

(MB 9 of the Income Tax Act 2007)

The income equalisation scheme allows you to deposit income from farming, fishing or forestry to Inland Revenue. The amount deposited into the income equalisation scheme is considered income and any interest earned on those deposits.

Withdrawals from the scheme are not considered income.

Adverse events and forest thinning operations income equalisation schemes.

Withdrawals from adverse events income equalisation schemes and forest thinning operations income equalisation schemes are parental income as they are taxable.

Deposits are not parental income.

Note: Generally refunds (excluding interest) are not considered income.

How we protect your privacy

Collecting your information

We collect your personal information, so we can provide income support, NZ Super or Veteran's Pension, Student Allowance, or Loans and connect you with employment, education and housing services. We do this under various Acts, which are all listed on our website at workandincome.govt.nz/privacy
