Partner’s obligations

When the student gets financial help from us you also have obligations to meet. If you don’t meet them, your and/or the student’s payments could stop – and in some cases you and/or the student could be prosecuted.

Here are your obligations

When the student gets the Jobseeker Support Student Hardship you (the student’s partner) must:

• be available for, and take reasonable steps to obtain suitable employment and
• accept any offer of suitable employment, including full-time, part-time or temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised and
• attend and participate in an interview opportunity for any suitable employment to which you’re referred and
• take and pass any drug test potential employers or training providers require and
• attend and participate in any interview with StudyLink when required to and
• undertake preparation for employment when required by StudyLink and
• take part in any other activities that StudyLink ask you to (including rehabilitation, but not medical treatment) such as work experience, work assessments, seminars or programmes that will improve your work readiness or prospects for employment and
• let StudyLink know how you’re meeting your work obligations as often as StudyLink reasonably requires.

If your youngest child is under 3, you must take reasonable steps to prepare for work. If your youngest child is 3–13 years old you need to look for part-time work (20 hours a week or more). If you do not have any children in your care or your youngest child is aged 14 years or older, you will generally be expected to look for work of at least 30 hours per week.

If things change

You must tell us or your Contracted Provider (where you have one assigned) straight away if you:

• Have a change in your work situation (such as starting part-time, casual or full-time work, paid or unpaid).
• Intend to travel overseas.
• Have changes to your living situation, including:
  – starting or ending a relationship such as a marriage, a civil union or a de facto relationship with someone of the same or opposite sex or – separation or
  – a change in the number of children you support or
  – a change in accommodation costs.
• Have changes to your income or financial circumstances.
• Have changes to your personal details (such as name, address or bank account number).
• Become self employed or start to run a business.
• Are imprisoned or held in custody on remand.
• Are admitted to or discharged from hospital.
• Have been granted an overseas pension.
• Have any other changes that may affect whether you can get income support or how much you get (for example, if you’re no longer available for work).
• Start study.

Obligations for parents and caregivers with dependent children

You understand that while you are getting this benefit you are expected to take reasonable steps to meet certain obligations as a parent or a caregiver. These are to ensure your dependent child(ren) (including any child you get Orphan’s or Unsupported Child’s Benefit for) are:

• enrolled with a medical centre that is a Primary Health Organisation or General Practitioner (GP)
• from the age of three until they start school, enrolled in and attending:
  – an approved early childhood education programme or
- Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu - The Correspondence School or
- an approved parenting and early childhood home education programme

- up to date with Well Child/Tamariki Ora checks
- attending school from the age of five or six (depending on when they start school).

You understand that you may be required to meet with StudyLink to discuss how you are meeting your obligations as a parent or a caregiver.

Working with a Contracted Service Provider
Where you have been asked to work with a Contracted Service Provider you will have an obligation to co-operate with them and to:

- attend and participate in any interview with them
- report to them on how you are meeting the obligations above
- complete assessments with them.

Not meeting your obligations to take and pass drug tests
You understand that if you fail your work obligation to take and to pass a drug test when required by a potential employer or training provider, without a good and sufficient reason, that:

- the first time you do this, you will have to agree to stop using drugs so that you can pass a drug test
- the second time you do this, you will have to agree to provide a clean drug test to StudyLink within 25 working days.

You understand that if you don’t provide a clean drug test within 25 working days your benefit will be stopped for 13 weeks. If your benefit has been stopped, and you agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and you are still entitled to your benefit, it will be restarted.

You understand that if you fail a pre-employment drug test with a potential employer you will need to pay for the test from your benefit.

You also understand that if you have to provide a clean drug test within 25 working days you will need to pay for the test.

Be honest with us
When you sign this form you are acknowledging that the information you give us is true and you have not left anything out. You understand that your and/or the student’s payments may be reviewed and cancelled if you:

- make a false statement or
- don’t answer all the questions fully or
- don’t tell us about changes in your circumstances that could affect your (and the student’s) eligibility and/or entitlement.

If this happens, you understand that you and/or the student will have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment plus collection costs, and you and/or the student may be prosecuted.

Partner’s declaration
The information I have provided is true and I have not left anything out. I have read and understood the Privacy Statement and my obligations as set out above. I understand that my payments or my partner’s payments may be reduced or stopped if I make a false statement or don’t tell StudyLink of a change in any circumstances, or fail to meet my obligations. If this happens I understand that I will have to pay back any overpayments plus collection costs, and I could be prosecuted.
