What you need to do (your obligations)

MINISTRY OF SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT
TE MANATŪ WHAKAHIATO ORA

When you're getting payments from us, there are some things you need to do to make sure you're getting paid the right amount. So does your partner, if you have one.

If you don't do these things, we could pay you the wrong amount. It could also mean we have to reduce or stop your payments. We don't want you to miss out on money you need so please read these carefully.

ⓘ A job could be part-time, casual or full-time, paid or unpaid.†

Let us know when things change

You need to let us know about changes that might affect the amount you're paid.

Changes to your income or availability for work, like:

- starting, stopping or changing jobs
- starting or finishing part-time or full-time study
- changes to your pay or other income, including getting an overseas pension
- starting to run a business (for yourself or someone else).

Changes to information about you or your family, like:

- name, address, contact details or bank account number
- starting or ending a relationship, marriage, or civil union
- a partner passes away
- the number of children in your care, including having another baby.

Changes to where you live or how much it costs, like a rise or drop in your rent, board, mortgage or rates.

We also need to know if you:

- go into or come out of hospital
- are being held in custody or on remand.

If we have the wrong information we could pay you the wrong amount. If we pay you too much you might have to pay us back.

ⓘ We can't pay you while you're out of New Zealand unless we've agreed to it.

Tell us if you're going overseas

If you're travelling overseas, you need to let us know.

You need to let us know before you leave New Zealand. If there's a good reason you can't, then you need to let us know as soon as you can.

① Full-time work means work of at least 30 hours a week.

Part-time work for partners with children means work of more than 20 hours and less than 30 hours a week.

Part-time work for people with a health condition means work of more than 15 hours and less than 30 hours a week.

Health condition includes illness, disability, or injury.

① Getting ready to work might include job training courses, seminars, work experience, or work assessment.

① A suitable job is any work you're capable of doing and can get to. Work could be full-time, part-time or temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised.

Look for work

Generally, you need to look for full-time work if you're not caring for children under the age of 14.

You'll need to look for part-time work if your health condition means you can work part-time.

Your partner (if you have one) needs to look for part-time work if the youngest child in your care is between 3 and 13.

You need to:

- do things we ask you to do to help you get ready to work
- be available for a suitable job, and do everything you can to get one
- take part in job interviews we ask you to go to
- accept any suitable job offer.

If potential employers or training providers are legally allowed to ask you to take a drug test, you need to pass the test.

You also need to:

- meet with us when we ask
- keep us up-to-date with what you're doing to find work.

① Health condition includes illness, disability, or injury.

Do what you can to get ready to work

You'll need to do what you can to get ready to work while you have:

- children in your care aged under 3
- a health condition that stops you from working 15 or more hours a week.

We won't ask you to look for work until you're able to. Until then, you need to:

- make a plan and do everything you can to get ready to work
- meet with us when we ask.

Keep up-to-date with children's health and education

Looking after children in your care includes making sure they're:

- enrolled with a health practitioner or medical centre
- up-to-date with core Well Child/Tamariki Ora checks
- enrolled in and going to early childhood education from the age of 3 until they start school
- going to school from when they start at the age of 5 or 6.

If we ask, you'll need to talk to us about what you're doing to care for your children's health and education.

You'll set up a Youth Service Plan with your coach to cover:

- education, training and work-based learning
- budgeting and how you'll manage your money
- parenting (if you have children).

Work with a Youth Coach, if you're asked to

You'll need to work with a Youth Coach if you're:

- aged 16-17 and don't have children
- aged 16-19 and have children.

You'll meet with them to talk about how things are going with your Youth Service Plan.

You can find ideas on how to do this at msd.govt.nz/reducing-costs

Make any changes you can so you don't need Temporary Additional Support

Temporary Additional Support (TAS) is short-term help to meet your costs.

If you get TAS you need to do what you can to:

- reduce costs
- earn extra money
- get other help with costs.

What can happen if you don't meet your obligations

You need to do the things listed above to keep getting payments from us. So does your partner, if you have one.

If you don't do these things your payments may go down or stop. In some cases you could even be prosecuted.

You can find full details about what can happen if you don't meet your obligations at msd.govt.nz/not-meeting-your-obligations

Your payments can go down or stop if you:

- don't tell us something we need to know
- don't do something we asked you to do to look for work
- refuse an offer of suitable work
- are not doing what you need to do to get ready for work
- refuse to take, or fail a drug test needed by an employer or training provider.

Your rights

You have the right to ask us to review any decision we make about your payments.

If you don't think we have things right or there's something you don't understand:

- call us – we can usually fix it over the phone
