This form is to be completed by the partner1 of the person applying for the Student Allowance. The student will also need to complete a Student Allowance application.

1 A partner is someone you are in a recognised relationship with. A recognised relationship is when you are both 24 or over and in a relationship such as marriage, civil union or de facto relationship (where you live together as a couple in a relationship in the nature of marriage or civil union). For the Student Allowance, if you or your partner are under 24 years old, and you do not have children in your care, you do not need to complete this form. If you are in a de facto relationship where you or your partner is aged 16 or 17 years old, a Family Court judge must give consent for the defacto relationship to be a recognised relationship for Student Allowance purposes.

Before you start – Read this page

Here are some important things you need to know before you complete your application.

Use blue or black ink only

When completing your application you must only use blue or black ink. If your application is completed in any other colour we might get you to complete another one.

Answer all the questions

It's important to answer every question in your application. If a question doesn’t apply to you, use 'N/A' or 'nil'. Don't leave the space blank, unless indicated on the form, as this could delay the process and the student may not get paid on time.

You may need to provide documents

All documents sent to StudyLink must be a verified copy. A verified copy is a copy of the original document which has been signed and dated by someone like a Solicitor/Lawyer, Notary Public, Court Registrar, an approved person at an education provider, school principal, StudyLink or Work and Income staff member or Justice of the Peace (listed in the Yellow Pages) who can confirm that the copy is the same as the original. They must print their name and title on each page and write that it is a true copy and sign it.

In most cases you won’t have to provide any document that StudyLink has already seen.

Remember to sign and date this application on page 7.

How to return this form

The easiest and fastest way to return your completed form to us is online using www.connect.co.nz. Please remember to include the student’s name and client number.

For more ways to contact us, visit our website www.studylink.govt.nz

We’re happy to help you complete your application.

We may ask for evidence of your income.

Remember to let us know every time your income changes.

Student Allowance is assessed based on the income you and the student declared at the time of application. If your income changes at any time, you must let us know straight away as it could affect your and your partner’s payments. Student Allowance payments for any week are affected by the income you earn in that week. We may ask for evidence of your income at any time in the future. We may also check your income with Inland Revenue.

Remember to read your obligations (including the privacy statement on page 8), then sign and date your declaration on page 7.

Partner’s checklist

All documents sent to StudyLink must be a verified copy. A verified copy is a copy of the original document which has been signed and dated by someone like a Solicitor/Lawyer, Notary Public, Court Registrar, an approved person at an education provider, school principal, StudyLink or Work and Income staff member or Justice of the Peace (listed in the Yellow Pages) who can confirm that the copy is the same as the original. They must print their name and title on each page and write that it is a true copy and sign it.

The best way to send your documents to us is online using www.connect.co.nz. Please remember to include the student’s name and client number with any documents that you send to us. For more information visit www.connect.co.nz.

Documents you need to provide if the student is applying for the first time and StudyLink hasn’t seen them before:

- [ ] Your birth certificate or passport.
- [ ] Evidence of your immigration status – if not born here. For example, your passport, residency documents, certificate of citizenship or letter from Immigration New Zealand.
- [ ] Evidence of any name change you’ve had. For example, marriage certificate or deed poll papers.
- [ ] Evidence of any income you have. For example, a payslip or letter from your employer.
Partner’s obligations

When the student gets financial help from us you also have obligations to meet. If you don’t meet them, your and/or the student’s payments could stop – and in some cases you and/or the student could be prosecuted.

Here are your obligations.

If things change

You must tell us straight away if you:

• have a change in your work situation (such as starting part-time, casual or full-time work)
• intend to travel overseas
• have changes to your living situation, including:
  – starting or ending a marriage, a civil union or a de facto relationship with someone or – separation or
  – a change in the number of children you support
• have changes to your income in any week or changes to your financial circumstances
• have changes to your personal details (such as name, address or bank account number)
• become self employed or start to run a business
• are imprisoned or held in custody on remand
• are admitted to or discharged from hospital
• have any other changes that may affect whether your partner can get a Student Allowance.

Be honest with us

When you sign this form you are acknowledging that the information you give us is true and you have not left anything out. You understand that your and/or the student’s payments may be reviewed and cancelled if you:

• make a false statement or
• don’t answer all the questions fully or
• don’t tell us about changes in your circumstances that could affect your (and the student’s) eligibility and/or entitlement.

If this happens, you understand that you and/or the student will have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment plus collection costs, and you and/or the student may be prosecuted.

Partner’s declaration

The information I have provided is true and I have not left anything out. I have read and understood my obligations as set out above.

I understand that I could be prosecuted if I make a false statement.

Privacy statement

The Ministry of Social Development includes Work and Income, MSD Housing Assessment, Senior Services, StudyLink and other service lines. The legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development allows us to check the information that you give us. This may happen when you apply for assistance and at any time after that. The Privacy Act 1993 requires us to tell you why we collect the information and what we will do with it.

Why we collect information
The information you give us is collected under the authority of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development and will be held by the Ministry of Social Development. The information is collected for the purposes of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development including:

- granting benefits and other assistance under the Social Security Act 2018
- delivering superannuation services under the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001
- delivering assistance under the Veterans’ Support Act 2014
- providing services under the Residential Care and Disability Support Services Act 2018
- statistical and research purposes
- providing advice to Government
- providing support and services for you and your family
- providing education related services
- care and protection needs of children
- assessing eligibility for social housing and calculating income-related rents under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992
- assessing whether you and/or your partner may be entitled to an overseas pension, benefit or allowance.

You are not required to give the Ministry of Social Development information, but if you do not give us all the information we ask for, your application for benefits or pensions and other assistance may be declined.

We may contact health practitioners
The Ministry of Social Development may contact health practitioners to check any health related information you give us.

We may use information for public housing
Information you give us when you apply for assistance, and at any time after that, may also be used for public housing purposes under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992, including reviewing your eligibility for social housing or your income-related rent. Public housing is subsidised housing available to people in the greatest need of housing for the duration of their need. It is provided by Housing New Zealand and approved community housing providers.

We may compare the information you give us with information held by other agencies
The information you give us may be compared with information held by other agencies such as Inland Revenue, the Ministry of Justice, Department of Corrections, New Zealand Customs Service, Department of Internal Affairs, Accident Compensation Corporation, Housing New Zealand Corporation, Ministry of Health and Immigration New Zealand. It may also be compared with social security information (for example, pension or benefit information) held by other governments (including Australia, Malta and the Netherlands).

We may share information with Inland Revenue
Under the Tax Administration Act 1994, if you have dependent children, the information you give us may be shared with Inland Revenue for the purpose of administering Working for Families Tax Credits. Inland Revenue may also:

- use the information for the purposes of child support, student loans and taxation
- disclose it to the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment, Statistics New Zealand, the Ministry of Justice, the Accident Compensation Corporation, and the Ministry of Education
- disclose your personal information to your partner.

We may give information to service providers, employers, public housing providers and childcare providers
The Ministry of Social Development may:

- give employers information about you if you use our employment services
- share information with childcare centres to administer your entitlement to childcare assistance
- give information about you to the Tertiary Education Commission, Workbridge, training providers, career services or other agencies that have a formal agreement to provide services on behalf of the Ministry of Social Development, if you use our employment services
- share information about you with public housing providers (such as Housing New Zealand) to administer your housing-related assistance.

We may use your information to give you a better service
Other information that you give us that is not required to assess your entitlement may be used to provide a better service to you.

You have the right to see and correct your information
Under the Privacy Act 1993 you have the right to ask to see all information we hold about you and to ask us to correct that information.
