TEMPORARY ADDITIONAL SUPPORT
APPLICATION FORM

COMPLETE THIS FORM IF YOU WANT TO APPLY FOR TEMPORARY ADDITIONAL SUPPORT.

If you are finding it hard financially, extra help with essential costs may be available through Temporary Additional Support.

It’s important that you take all necessary steps to get other assistance towards costs and take reasonable steps to increase income and reduce costs where possible.

To get Temporary Additional Support you need to meet these criteria:

• be over 16 years old
• be a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident
• normally live in New Zealand and intend to stay here
• have essential living costs that you have no other way to meet
• are not already getting Special Benefit

If you are a full-time student, you must also:

• have a dependent child, or
• have disability costs for any family member that exceeds the maximum rate of Disability Allowance.

To work out if you can get this help we also look at:

• how much you and your spouse or partner earn
• any money or assets you or your spouse or partner have
• whether we can help you in other ways
• the types of costs you are paying for
• what you are doing to meet or reduce your costs
BEFORE YOU START – READ THIS PAGE

HERE ARE SOME IMPORTANT THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW BEFORE YOU COMPLETE YOUR APPLICATION.

USE BLUE OR BLACK INK ONLY
When completing your application you must only use blue or black ink. If your application is completed in any other colour we might get you to complete another one.

ANSWER ALL THE QUESTIONS
It’s important to answer every question in your application. If a question doesn’t apply to you, use ‘N/A’ or ‘nil’. Don’t leave the space blank, unless indicated on the form, as this could delay the process and you may not get paid on time.

YOU MAY NEED TO PROVIDE DOCUMENTS
You may need to provide certain documents with your application – these are listed on page 21.
All documents sent to StudyLink must be a verified copy. A verified copy is a copy of the original document which has been signed and dated by someone like a Solicitor/Lawyer, Notary Public, Court Registrar, an approved person at an education provider, school principal, StudyLink or Work and Income staff member or Justice of the Peace (listed in the Yellow Pages) who can confirm that the copy is the same as the original.
They must print their name and title on each page and write that it is a true copy and sign it.
The best way to send your documents to us is online www.connect.co.nz. Please remember to include your name and client number with any documents that you send to us. For more information visit www.connect.co.nz.
In most cases you won’t have to provide any document that StudyLink has already seen.

SIGN AND DATE THE FORM
Remember to sign and date this application on page 21 – and make sure anyone else who needs to sign it has done so.

HOW TO RETURN THIS FORM
The easiest and fastest way to return your completed form to us is online using www.connect.co.nz. Please remember to include your name and client number.
For more ways to contact us, visit our website www.studylink.govt.nz

PARTNER’S OBLIGATIONS

When the student gets financial help from us you also have obligations to meet. If you don’t meet them, your and/or the student’s payments could stop – and in some cases you and/or the student could be prosecuted.

Here are your obligations.

If things change
You must tell us straight away if you:

• Have a change in your work situation (such as starting part-time, casual or full-time work).
• Intend to travel overseas.
• Have changes to your living situation, including:
  – starting or ending a marriage, a civil union or a de facto relationship with someone of the same or opposite sex or
  – separation or
  – a change in the number of children you support
  – change in accommodation costs.
• Have changes to your personal details (such as name, address or bank account number).
• Become self employed or start to run a business.
• Have changes to my/our income or financial circumstances.
• Start or finish part-time or full-time study.
• Become imprisoned/held in custody on remand.
• Admitted to or discharged from hospital.
• Have been granted an overseas pension.
• Have any other changes that may affect my/our benefit entitlement or rate.

Be honest with us
When you sign this form you are acknowledging that the information you give us is true and you have not left anything out. You understand that your payments may be reviewed and cancelled if you:

• make a false statement or
• don’t answer all the questions fully or
• don’t tell us about changes in your circumstances that could affect your (and your partner’s) eligibility and/or entitlement.

If this happens, you understand that you or your partner will have to pay back the total amount of any overpayments plus collection costs, and you may be prosecuted.

I understand that if I have made an application for Temporary Additional Support, my partner and I must take all necessary steps to get other assistance towards costs and take reasonable steps to increase my income and reduce costs where possible.
Why we collect information

The information you give us or your Contracted Service Provider is collected under the authority of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development and will be held by the Ministry of Social Development and/or your Contracted Service Provider. The information is collected for the purposes of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development including:

- granting benefits and other assistance under the Social Security Act 1964
- granting student loans and student allowances under the Education Act 1989
- delivering superannuation services under the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001 and the Veterans’ Support Act 2014
- assessing eligibility for social housing and calculating income-related rents under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992
- care and protection needs of children under the Children, Young Persons and their Families Act 1989
- providing support and services for you and your family in relation to employment, education and housing
- assessing whether you and/or your partner (if you have one) may be entitled to an overseas pension, benefit or allowance.

MSD may also use the information for statistical and research purposes, and for providing advice to Government.

The Ministry of Social Development and your Contracted Service Provider will exchange information about you in order to provide you with your correct financial assistance and other services. Your Contracted Service Provider may collect information from other agencies where that information is relevant to the services that the Contracted Service Provider is providing you.

You are not required to give the Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider information, but if you do not give them, or us, all the information we ask for, your application for benefits and other assistance may be declined.

We may collect information from other agencies where that information is relevant to the services that the Contracted Service Provider is providing you.

We may use information for social housing

Information you give us when you apply for assistance, and at any time after that, may also be used for social housing purposes under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992, including reviewing your eligibility for social housing or your income-related rent.

Social housing is subsidised housing available to people in the greatest need of housing for the duration of their need. It is provided by Housing New Zealand and approved community housing providers.

We may contact health providers

The Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider may contact health providers to check any health related information you give us.

We may compare the information you give us with information held by other agencies

The information you give us, or your Contracted Service Provider, may be compared with information held by other agencies such as Inland Revenue, the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Justice, New Zealand Defence Force, Department of Corrections, New Zealand Customs Service, Department of Internal Affairs, Accident Compensation Corporation, Housing New Zealand Corporation, Ministry of Health, New Zealand Qualifications Authority, Tertiary Education Commission, Student Job Search, education providers, and Immigration New Zealand. It may also be compared with social security information (for example, pension or benefit information) held by other governments (including Australia, the Netherlands and Malta).

We may share information with Inland Revenue

Under the Tax Administration Act 1994, if you have dependent children, the information you give us, or your Contracted Service Provider, may be shared with Inland Revenue for the purpose of administering Working for Families Tax Credits. Inland Revenue may also:

- use the information for the purposes of child support, student loans and taxation
- disclose it to the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment, Statistics New Zealand, the Ministry of Justice, the Accident Compensation Corporation, and the Ministry of Education
- disclose your personal information to your partner.

We may give information to employers, childcare providers, service providers and social housing providers.

The Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider may:

- give employers (and recruitment agencies, immigration advisors and immigration consultants acting on behalf of employers) information about you to find you employment and contact the employer to discuss the result of any job interview that you are referred to
- share information with childcare centres to administer your entitlement to childcare assistance
- give information about you to the Tertiary Education Commission, Workbridge, training providers, education providers, career services or other agencies that have a formal agreement to provide services on behalf of the Ministry of Social Development.
- share information about you with social housing providers (such as Housing New Zealand) to administer your housing-related assistance.

We may use your information to give you a better service

Other information that you give us or your Contracted Service Provider (for example, on your skills, aspirations, family circumstances) that is not required to assess your entitlement to a benefit may be used by us or your Contracted Service Provider to provide a better service to you.

You have the right to see your information and ask for it to be corrected

Under the Privacy Act 1993 you have the right to ask to see all information we, or your Contracted Service Provider, hold about you and to ask them, or us, to correct that information.
PARTNER’S DOCUMENTS TO PROVIDE

All documents sent to StudyLink must be a verified copy. A verified copy is a copy of the original document which has been signed and dated by someone like a Solicitor/Lawyer, Notary Public, Court Registrar, an approved person at an education provider, school principal, StudyLink or Work and Income staff member or Justice of the Peace (listed in the Yellow Pages) who can confirm that the copy is the same as the original.

They must print their name and title on each page and write that it is a true copy and sign it.

The best way to send your documents to us is online using www.connect.co.nz. Please remember to include your name and the student’s name and client number with any documents that you send to us. For more information visit www.connect.co.nz.

Documents you need to provide if the student is applying for the first time and StudyLink hasn’t seen them before.

11. Please indicate what steps you and/or your partner have taken to get other assistance, reduce costs or increase income:

Temporary Additional Support is last resort financial assistance. You and your partner must take all necessary steps to get other assistance towards costs and take reasonable steps to increase income and reduce costs where possible.

We may talk to you about what other steps you might be able to take.
PRIVACY STATEMENT

The Ministry of Social Development includes Work and Income, MSD Housing Assessment, Senior Services, StudyLink and other service lines. The legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development allows us to check the information that you give us. This may happen when you apply for assistance and at any time after that. The Privacy Act 1993 requires us to tell you why we collect the information and what we will do with it.

Why we collect information

The information you give us or your Contracted Service Provider is collected under the authority of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development and will be held by the Ministry of Social Development and/or your Contracted Service Provider. The information is collected for the purposes of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development including:

• granting benefits and other assistance under the Social Security Act 1964
• granting student loans and student allowances under the Education Act 1989
• delivering superannuation services under the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001 and the Veterans’ Support Act 2014
• assessing eligibility for social housing and calculating income-related rents under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992
• care and protection needs of children under the Children, Young Persons and their Families Act 1989
• providing support and services for you and your family in relation to employment, education and housing
• assessing whether you and/or your partner (if you have one) may be entitled to an overseas pension, benefit or allowance.

The Ministry of Social Development and your Contracted Service Provider will exchange information about you in order to provide you with your correct financial assistance and other services. Your Contracted Service Provider may collect information from other agencies where that information is relevant to the services that the Contracted Service Provider is providing you.

You are not required to give the Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider information, but if you do not give them, or us, all the information we ask for, your application for benefits and other assistance may be declined.

MSD may also use the information for statistical and research purposes, and for providing advice to Government.

We may use information for social housing

Information you give us when you apply for assistance, and at any time after that, may also be used for social housing purposes under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992, including reviewing your eligibility for social housing or your income-related rent.

Social housing is subsidised housing available to people in the greatest need of housing for the duration of their need. It is provided by Housing New Zealand and approved community housing providers.

We may contact health providers

The Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider may contact health providers to check any health related information you give us.

We may compare the information you give us with information held by other agencies

The information you give us, or your Contracted Service Provider, may be compared with information held by other agencies such as Inland Revenue, the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Justice, New Zealand Defence Force, Department of Corrections, New Zealand Customs Service, Department of Internal Affairs, Accident Compensation Corporation, Housing New Zealand Corporation, Ministry of Health, New Zealand Qualifications Authority, Tertiary Education Commission, Student Job Search, education providers, and Immigration New Zealand. It may also be compared with social security information (for example, pension or benefit information) held by other governments (including Australia, the Netherlands and Malta).

We may share information with Inland Revenue

Under the Tax Administration Act 1994, if you have dependent children, the information you give us, or your Contracted Service Provider, may be shared with Inland Revenue for the purpose of administering Working for Families Tax Credits. Inland Revenue may also:

• use the information for the purposes of child support, student loans and taxation
• disclose it to the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment, Statistics New Zealand, the Ministry of Justice, the Accident Compensation Corporation, and the Ministry of Education
• disclose your personal information to your partner.

We may give information to employers, childcare providers, service providers and social housing providers

The Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider may:

• give employers (and recruitment agencies, immigration advisors and immigration consultants acting on behalf of employers) information about you to find you employment and contact the employer to discuss the result of any job interview that you are referred to
• share information with childcare centres to administer your entitlement to childcare assistance
• give information about you to the Tertiary Education Commission, Workbridge, training providers, education providers, career services or other agencies that have a formal agreement to provide services on behalf of the Ministry of Social Development.
• share information about you with social housing providers (such as Housing New Zealand) to administer your housing-related assistance.

We may use your information to give you a better service

Other information that you give us or your Contracted Service Provider (for example, on your skills, aspirations, family circumstances) that is not required to assess your entitlement to a benefit may be used by us or your Contracted Service Provider to provide a better service to you.

You have the right to see your information and ask for it to be corrected

Under the Privacy Act 1993 you have the right to ask to see all information we, or your Contracted Service Provider, hold about you and to ask them, or us, to correct that information.
STUDENT’S OBLIGATIONS

When you get financial help from us you need to meet all your obligations. If you don’t, your payments could stop – and in some cases you could be prosecuted.

Here are your obligations.

If things change

You must tell us straight away if you:

• Have a change in your work situation (such as starting part-time, casual or full-time work).
• Intend to travel overseas.
• Have changes to your living situation, including:
  – starting or ending a marriage, a civil union or a de facto relationship with someone of the same or opposite sex or
  – separation or
  – a change in the number of children you support
  – change in accommodation costs.
• Have changes to your personal details (such as name, address or bank account number).
• Become self employed or start to run a business.
• Have changes to my/our income or financial circumstances.
• Start or finish part-time or full-time study.
• Become imprisoned/held in custody on remand.
• Admitted to or discharged from hospital.
• Have been granted an overseas pension.
• Have any other changes that may affect my/our benefit entitlement or rate.

Be honest with us

When you sign this form you are acknowledging that the information you give us is true and you have not left anything out. You understand that your payments may be reviewed and cancelled if you:

• make a false statement or
• don’t answer all the questions fully or
• don’t tell us about changes in your circumstances that could affect your (and your partner’s) eligibility and/or entitlement.

If this happens, you understand that you or your partner will have to pay back the total amount of any overpayments plus collection costs, and you may be prosecuted.

I understand that if I have made an application for Temporary Additional Support, my partner and I must take all necessary steps to get other assistance towards costs and take reasonable steps to increase my income and reduce costs where possible.
DOCUMENTS TO PROVIDE

All documents sent to StudyLink must be a verified copy. A verified copy is a copy of the original document which has been signed and dated by someone like a Solicitor/Lawyer, Notary Public, Court Registrar, an approved person at an education provider, school principal, StudyLink or Work and Income staff member or Justice of the Peace (listed in the Yellow Pages) who can confirm that the copy is the same as the original.

They must print their name and title on each page and write that it is a true copy and sign it.

The best way to send your documents to us is online using www.connect.co.nz. Please remember to include your name and client number with any documents that you send to us. For more information visit www.connect.co.nz.

Documents you need to provide if you’re applying for the first time and StudyLink hasn’t seen them before.

☐ Your birth certificate or passport.

☐ Evidence of your immigration status – if not born here. For example, your passport, residency documents, certificate of citizenship or letter from Immigration New Zealand.

☐ Evidence of any name change you’ve had – if the name you’re applying under is different from the name in the documents you’re providing. For example, marriage certificate or deed poll papers.

☐ Full birth certificates for your children.

☐ Marriage or civil union certificate – if you have one.

☐ A form or letter from Inland Revenue showing your IRD (tax) number.

☐ Gross income details.

☐ Evidence of any accommodation costs.

☐ Evidence of bank account details.

☐ Evidence or quotes for any expenses relating to your disability.

☐ Evidence of any other essential ongoing costs (eg hire purchase agreements).

DECLARATION

All the information I have provided is true and I have not left anything out. I have read and understood the Privacy Statement and my obligations as set out above. I understand that my payments may be reduced or stopped if I make a false statement, or don’t tell StudyLink of a change in any circumstances, or fail to meet my obligations. If this happens I will have to pay back any overpayments plus collection costs, and I could be prosecuted.
